TINSELTOWN is horrified the darkest plastic surgery secrets of the stars will be exposed after a shocking theft of confidential records!

Panic spread after a disgruntled former employee of a Beverly Hills cosmetic surgeon located on posh Rodeo Drive made off with the files of 15,000 patients — including those of A-list celebrities.

“This is a disaster of epic proportions,” one celebrity insider confessed of the heist, which was recently revealed by an audit.

“There are many prominent stars and personalities — both men and women — who are quaking in their boots!”

The National ENQUIRER’s spy on the scene dished that the affected celebrities include a two-time Grammy winner, a star of one of the “Real Housewives” franchises — and a three-time Tony Award winner!

Worse yet, a spokesperson for Dr. Zain Kadri admitted the employee had also secretly taken photos of patients before and during surgeries and uploaded them to the mobile messaging app Snapchat.

What’s more, the thief helped herself to copies of identification and credit and debit card information of patients from more than 16 states and five countries!

While no specific victims have been named, insiders said Janice Dickinson, Priscilla Presley, Sylvester Stallone, Melanie Griffith, Mickey Rourke and Cher were rumored to have visited the facility.

“This is a serious breach of patient privacy and a felonious act in direct violation of HIPAA [federal privacy regulations],” said Dr. Leslie Stevens, a Beverly Hills plastic surgeon to the stars.

“We all have systems in place to guard against breaches. Unfortunately ... this was an inside job.”

The employee reportedly quit on March 13 after she had allegedly been caught embezzling from the doctor, and shocking images were found on a company mobile phone.

The suspect also uploaded “some pretty disrespectful videos of the doctor” to Snapchat, according to the spokesperson.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff said a police report was filed but no arrests have been made.

We uncovered a similar security breach in February when a ghoulish garbage man was discovered peddling similar celebrity plastic surgery secrets — until The ENQUIRER halted the ghastly trash-for-cash scheme!

The sanitation specialist ran a business whose sole purpose was to dispose of ultra-sensitive documents — but instead of destroying the medical files, the villain shopped them to the highest bidder!

After the sleazy spy contacted The ENQUIRER, we arranged an undercover sting at our Hollywood bureau, and the details of his dirty operation were exposed to his victims! NE
